RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

EXTRACT COPY OF MINUTES OF MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DI-RECTORS OF THE RICHMOND BANK AND TRUST COMPANY, HELD IN ITS BANKING ROOM 12 O'CLOCK NOON, JULY 30, 1915.

We are to-day called together to pay our last sad tribute of respect to our esteemed friend and associate, IOHN business enterprise.

His absolute frankness and honesty of purpose made him become recognized as one of the strongest members of our board, and won for him the friendship and esteem of all its members.

friendship and esteem of all its members.

It will be remembered that he met with us on the afternoon of July the 13th, just a few hours before that awful accident which has resulted in his death.

In our deliberations we shall miss his counsel and long remember his friendship; therefore.

Resolved, That in the death of our associate, JOHN MANN, JR., this bank has suffered an irreparable loss, the city and State an exemplary citizen and official, his family a devoted husband and father, and we his associates a true and steadfast friend, and that we tender to his wife and children our deepest sympathy in their bereavement, and that a copy hereof be sent to them, spread on our minutes, and published in the press.
